

Hometown Heroes Designs

Color your downtown with an inspiring display honoring local veterans. Pictures of service members from your community can be printed full-color onto light pole banners with personalized descriptions of their military service. Our art department will work with you to create a cohesive graphic landscape that fits your unique community.

Featured here are veteran banners designed for Piqua, Ohio by Project Graphics. We have created over 100 unique veteran banners for this community.